Supreme Court-In Equity. July Term, 1875.

KAOPUA (k) AND KALAMA HIS WIFE AND EKEKELA VS. H. H. ROTH KRELIKOLANI. On appeal from decision of Mr. Justice Jupp.

OPINION BY HARRIS, J. By the bill it is alleged that the Plaintiffs jointly with one Mahnia are heirs at law of Kalaiheana (k) who at the time of his decease was seized and possessed of a land called Helumos. and was tenant in common with Her late Royal Highness Victoria Kamamala of lands known as Kanewai, Kanewai Kahala, and Pahoa, situated at Waikiki, Oahu, near the city of Honolula, and the defendant in this suit is the heir, by several descents, of the aforesaid Princess Kamamalu. It appears by the testimony of Mr. Mahelona that for some reason or other, the late Hon. John Ii and His Highness M. Kekunnaon, guardians of the Princess Kamamalu, claimed the whole of the lands in question, and in 1859, Mr. Ii drove the heirs of Kalaiheana from the land of Kanewsi and kept possession of it for his ward, and shortly thereafter in 1859. Kalaiheana's heirs commenced an action of ejectment in the Supreme Court, but were not successful. A reference to the record of the Court in that case shows that they were nonsuited three times, and withdrew once, and being and prepared to commence anew their action in 1867, seven or eight years after the first proceedings were commenced.

They paid Mr. Jones a fee of $50, and Mr. give him a share of their lands or he would no ployment and confidence. longer act for them, and thereupon they paid Lawrence a fee of $30, and employed him, being as they say in their bill, importaned thereto by Law-

The bill goes on to allege that Lawrence caused a power of Attorney to be drawn up in the English language as follows : "Know all men by these presents, that we-Kalama, Kaopua and Nabua of Honolulu, Oahu-Hawaiian Islands, heirs of Kalaiheana, deceased. have constituted and appointed and by these presents do constitute and appoint Andrew J. Lawrence of Honolula, Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, our true and lawful attorney in fact for us, and in our names to sue for, recover, take possession of, compromise, dispose of, or sell and convey all our rights, titles, and interests in the lands of Kanewai, Kanewai-Kahala, Pahoa and Helumoa; and our said attorney is authorized to sell and convey by way of compromise, or otherwise, all or any portion of our rights, titles and interests in any or all of said lands, at such prices, and on such terms as he may think best; to receive and re-ceipt for all sums of money received for the same. and for in and in our names, to make such deeds of conveyance to the purchaser, or purchasers thereof, as may be necessary and proper to convey our interests therein, and to do all and every act which may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and authority herein granted to him. And we hereby promise and agree to ratify all the acts of our said attorney done in the premises. And we hereby revoke all powers and au-

sen accomplished by him. In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 20th day of December, 1867. KALAMA, [L.S.] KAOPUA, [L.S.]

NAHUA. [L. S.] Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of W. P. RAGSDALE, JAMES D. HALAL

I certify that I have this 20th day of December, 1867, read, translated and interpreted the foregoing power of attorney to Kalama, Kaopua, and Nahua, the persons who executed the same WILLIAM P. RAGSDALE.

Interpreter and Government Translator. Register Office, Oahn, as : On this 20th day of December, A. D. 1867, personally appeared before me Kaopaa and his wife Kalama and Na-hua, parties to the foregoing instrument, who sev-srally acknowledged that they had executed the same for the uses and purposes therein set forth; and the said Kalama on a private examination seperate and apart from her husband, declared that she had executed the same of her own free will without cumpulsion, fear or constraint from her said husband. It further appears that the power of attorney n question was made on the 20th of December. 1867, and the purchase was not completed until fully three months afterwards, a circumstance of not much importance, but tending surely to show that there was no such haste as would tend to show an undue acxiety on the part of the purchasers, such as would accompany a consciousness of a fraudulent collusion or a collusion of ness of a fraudulent collusion or a collusion of Tortoise Shell & Crystal Jewelry, any kind with the attorney in fact for the other side.
